♪♪ ALL GLORY, LAUD, AND HONOR! ♪♪

Trinity certainly gave glory to God this past Holy Week! Maundy Thursday was awesome and inspiring. Thank you to the MANY hands that prepared and served the Seder meal and turkey dinner. Many thanks to the actors, musicians, and directors who put in countless hours to present the Last Supper production. Also gratitude to David in the sound booth and all who came to set up and break down for the two seatings. Nearly 280 people attended!

The Altar Guild did a wonderful job preparing the church for the Good Friday Service. Thank you to all who added to the beauty of this, heart-wrenching service..

Easter was a triumphant display of honor to our Risen Lord and King, as it should be! Thank you to all who contributed beautiful lilies to decorate the altar and the altar guild who coordinated the orders and adorned our altar with linens and banners. The vocal music and instrumentalists were outstanding. We are fortunate to have so much talent within our congregation. Again, thank you to the sound crew, ushers, elders, and all who made this Holy Week truly worthy of our King.

I would also like to recognize Carolyn, our church secretary for typing so many programs in addition to her regular duties last week, those in the office who counted offerings and those who posted attendance.

However, the biggest THANK YOU goes to Pastor Blair who organized the Seder Meal and ALL services throughout this Lenten and Easter season. Well-done, good and faithful servant!
